11:00am	Arrive Old Town Spring.

Established in 1840, today Old Town Spring is a quaint turn-of-the-century village located near the original rail yards built by the Great Northern Railroad in the early 1900s. Historic Victorian homes are nestled among the town's towering tree lined streets. Shoppers can stroll and relax in gazebos and benches throughout the town away from the hustle and bustle of the big city. With more than 150 shops you will find a variety of antiques, restaurants, clothing, collectibles, galleries, museums and a winery. Take a step back in time and spend the day. Be sure to bring the entire family because there is something for everyone!
