Itinerary

April 22, 2026 Fly to Edinburgh, Scotland.

April 23, 2026 Your day begins with a tour of Edinburgh including the elegant Charlotte Square, a perfect start to soak in the Georgian charm. Then brave the bustling Princes Street, the city's vibrant heart, before ascending the Walter Scott Monument for breathtaking panoramic views. The afternoon is a royal affair, exploring the opulent Holyrood Palace and wandering down the historic Royal Mile, a treasure trove of shops and hidden gems. The day culminates with a visit to the majestic Edinburgh Castle, a fortress steeped in history, where we can marvel at the Crown Jewels and soaked in the awe-inspiring views.

April 24, 2026 Today will be an adventure into the heart of the Scottish Highlands. You'll embark on a full-day tour, winding through breathtaking scenery of rolling hills, glinting lochs, and dramatic mountains. The highlight will be a captivating cruise on Loch Ness, where you'll keep a watchful eye for the elusive monster, Nessie! Back in Edinburgh, you'll savor a delightful dinner on your own, reflecting on the day's unforgettable journey through the stunning Scottish countryside.

April 25, 2026 Your departure from Edinburgh will be a scenic journey. You'll enjoy a touring experience en route, stopping to explore the enigmatic Rosslyn Chapel, a masterpiece of medieval architecture renowned for its intricate carvings and mysterious symbolism. This captivating chapel has long been shrouded in mystery, fueling speculation about hidden meanings and connections to secret societies. Continue on to Ayrshire and visit the Robert Burns cottage. Your tour will conclude at your charming hotel, where a delightful three-course dinner awaits.

April 26, 2026 Today, you'll bid farewell to your Scottish guide and coach driver at the ferry terminal in Cairnryan. You'll then embark on a high-speed ferry journey in Standard Class across the Irish Sea to Belfast. Upon arrival, you'll be met by your Irish driver-guide who will accompany you throughout your Irish adventure. You'll then travel by private touring coach to Belfast, where you'll delve into the fascinating history of the Titanic at the renowned Titanic Belfast Experience.

April 27, 2026 This morning, you'll depart for Dublin, the vibrant capital of Ireland. You'll enjoy a self-guided experience at the Guinness Storehouse, learning about the history and art of brewing this iconic Irish stout. After your visit, your guide will meet you and lead you on a fascinating tour of Dublin, showcasing major landmarks such as Trinity College, the National Library, and Government Buildings. You'll also have the opportunity to experience the Book of Kells, a stunning illuminated manuscript housed within Trinity College. Your private coach will then transport you to your hotel and later to the renowned Taylor's Three Rock Irish Night, where you'll enjoy a delicious three-course dinner accompanied by lively Irish music and entertainment.

April 28, 2026 Embark on a scenic journey to Killarney. En route, you'll make a photo stop at the awe-inspiring Rock of Cashel, a historic site with breathtaking views. You'll then visit Blarney Castle, renowned for its famous Blarney Stone, and explore the charming Blarney Woollen Mills. Before arriving in Killarney, you'll enjoy a panoramic tour of the vibrant city of Cork.

April 29, 2026 Get ready for a breathtaking journey! You'll embark on a panoramic tour of the Ring of Kerry, one of Ireland's most scenic drives. This unforgettable experience will take you along the dramatic coastline of the Iveragh Peninsula, where you'll encounter wind-swept cliffs, still lakes, lost valleys, and majestic rocky mountains.

April 30, 2026 Your journey continues to Galway. En route, you'll experience a scenic ferry crossing over the Shannon River from Tarbert to Killimer. You'll also visit the awe-inspiring Cliffs of Moher, enjoying stunning views from the visitor center.

May 1, 2026 Your final day will be dedicated to a panoramic tour of Connemara, a truly unique region. This rugged landscape boasts broad-backed mountains, pearl-like lakes, and a deep-rooted Irish culture. Explore this captivating region where the old traditions and way of life are as much a part of the allure as the stunning scenery.
