

YOUR ITINERARY

May 20: Seattle. Fly to Seattle and transfer to the hotel. Enjoy the downtown area.

May 21: Norwegian Joy. Today you will board the Joy to begin your journey!

May 22: At Sea: Begin with a day at sea. Enjoy the day exploring all the Joy has to offer.

May 23: Ketchikan. Ketchikan, Alaska, with its lush wilderness thanks to abundant rainfall, is a wonderful place to visit. Its Tlingit Indian name, Kach Khanna, means "spread wings of the eagle." During your Alaska cruise to Ketchikan (Ward Cove), you're likely to see one of these majestic birds perched on a Sitka tree.

May 24: Juneau. Juneau, Alaska, known as "Alaska's peak experience," offers incredible glacier views at Tracy Arm Fjord, the Juneau Icefields, and Glacier Bay National Park. Enjoy kayaking in protected waterways, flightseeing, touring historic downtown, or panning for gold. Don't miss the majestic Mendenhall Glacier, just 12 miles from Juneau—a trip worth taking.

May 25: Skagway. The tiny town of Skagway still looks like it did during the Klondike Gold Rush over 100 years ago— and today it remains an outpost for thrilling Alaskan adventure. An old-time street car ride along bustling Broadway Street reveals well-preserved buildings, including the state's oldest hotel. You can see engraved walrus tusks at the Corrington Museum, or get lost in riveting historical reenactments around town.

May 26: Icy Strait Point. Explore Icy Strait Point, famously known as the place "where the north wind doesn't blow." This breathtaking destination is perfect for adventurers, offering a unique experience where wildlife outnumbers people. Take a cruise and enjoy Alaska's awe-inspiring scenery and thrilling excursions with Norwegian Cruise Line. With its stunning views and abundant wildlife, Icy Strait Point truly satisfies your taste for adventure and provides an unforgettable Alaskan experience.

May 27: Endicott Arm and Dawes Glacier (Cruising). Visitors come to Alaska to see magnificent glaciers like Dawes. The journey there is half the excitement. From Stephens Passage, your ship turns into Endicott Arm, a less-traveled fjord with stunning scenery. You'll see sheer granite walls, plunging waterfalls, and spruce and hemlock trees clinging to steep sides. Look for "bergy bits," floating chunks of glacial ice, some with seals resting on top. Keep an eye out for bears, mountain goats, and whales. As you approach Dawes Glacier, listen for thunderous cracks and have your camera ready. This active tidewater glacier, 600 feet tall and half a mile wide, might be the highlight of your Alaska cruise.

May 28: At Sea. Enjoy another day at sea. Relax, unwind, or see a show!

May 29: Victoria, British Columbia. Wander through the wide lawns of the beautiful Butchart Gardens, filled with exotic plants, unique topiary, and lovely fountains. Discover the historic Bastion Square, the wonders of Chinatown, and the many attractions along the Inner Harbour boardwalk.

May 30: Seattle. Transfer to the airport for your return home.
